Our Statement of Commitment to Child Safety

- Our service is committed to child safety
- We want children to be safe, happy and empowered
- We support and respect all children, as well as our employees and volunteers
- We are committed to the safety, participation and empowerment of all children
- We have zero tolerance of child abuse, and all allegations and safety concerns will be treated very seriously and consistently with our robust policies and procedures.
- We have legal and moral obligations to contact authorities when we are worried about a child's safety, which we follow rigorously
- Our service is committed to preventing child abuse and identifying risks early, and removing and reducing these risks
- Our service has robust human resources and recruitment practices for all employees and volunteers
- Our service is committed to regularly training and educating our employees and volunteers on child abuse risks
- We are committed to the cultural safety of Aboriginal children, the cultural safety of children from culturally and/or linguistically diverse backgrounds, and to providing a safe environment for children with a disability.
- We have specific policies and procedures in place that support our employees and volunteers to achieve these commitments.
